What happened last month:

It has been a pleasure meeting and getting to know all the children and their families. September has been a busy month learning all the classroom routines, the teachers and their new friends. We also learned about ourselves and our families. In science the children looked at their eye colour and hair colours, and height and we counted how many children have each colour (there is a chart on the board, and we would love if you came in and had a look. Children also spent some time learning about facial expressions and watching themselves in a mirror. In art, the children explored their own faces; using a mirror to help them make self-portraits out of yarn and buttons for eyes. The children have enjoyed learning about themselves and their peers. I hope you all enjoyed the first month of school.

We have also been discussing classroom expectations and introduced "how to fill a bucket". Ask your child what it means to fill someone's bucket and what it means to dip into someone's bucket.

Things to look forward to this Month:

We will be starting off October with stone soup. And I hope you are all able to join us. If you can't attend, ask a family member or friend. Picture Day is coming up this month, please watch for details coming. We will do individual pictures during class time, and retakes and class pictures will be done in the New Year. At the end of October, we will be having our class Halloween parties - we encourage all the children to come dressed up that day. We ask that the children don't wear masks and don't bring weapons. Watch for signup sheets after thanksgiving to bring food and/or volunteer that day in your child's class.
